About Your Spelling Words

Each of this week's words have a pattern of letters like this: vowel-consonant-consonant-vowel.

There is usually a syllable break between the consonants in these words. Notice that the first syllable in each VCCV word ends with a consonant sound. The second syllable always begins with a consonant sound.

den / tist

Underline the VCCV pattern in each of your spelling words. For example, in the word dentist, you'd underline the letters enti.
